

Faith in Indiana Institutional Membership

Help Build An Indiana Where Everyone Can Thrive

Hello Neighbor!

Faith in Indiana is a community of congregations that reaches tens of thousands of Hoosiers across race, faith, and place - motivated by our sacred values - to act collectively for racial and economic justice.

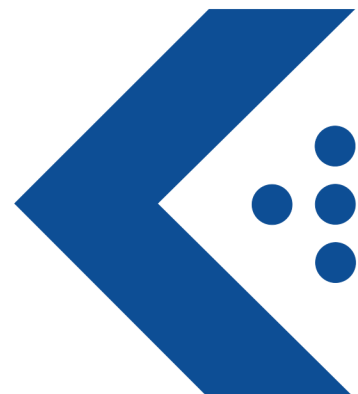

Together, our faith movement can change how we talk about politics, make sure those that represent us reflect the very best of us, and shape the policy and resource decisions to create an Indiana where everyone thrives.

Congregations, not individuals, are members of Faith in Indiana. A faith institution, or a values-aligned organization, becomes a member of Faith in Indiana by both making a membership contribution and building a team in the congregation to engage its members and represent its interests through Faith in Indiana's democratic governance structures.

If you have questions about membership, please email me at Shoshanna@FaithIndiana.org. We look forward to building with you!

Sincerely,

Shoshanna Spector
